EXPERIENCE

Research Experience

Postdoctoral Researcher, New York University, Abu Dhabi, UAE, 2022-2025

Supervisor: dr. Daryl Fougne

Postdoctoral Researcher, University of Groningen, Groningen, NL, 2019-2022

Project: Hidden brain states underlying efficient representations in working memory

Supervisor: prof. Elkan G. Akyürek

Grant Source: Open Research Area

Research Assistant, CUNY-Brooklyn College, New York, USA, 2014-2015

Supervisor: dr. Daniel Kurylo

Position: Volunteer laboratory assistant in animal-vision psychophysics laboratory.

Teaching Experience

University of Groningen:

2021; 2022, Cognition and Attention, Guest Lecturer

2018-2019, Academic Skills, Lecturer

2017-2018, Honors Research Practicum, Mentor

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Cognitive Neuroscience, University of Groningen, Groningen, NL, 2020

Dissertation: From Stimulus to Representation: Target Identification in Rapid Serial Visual Presentation

Promotors: prof. Elkan G. Akyürek, prof. Monique M. Lorist

M.A., Experimental Psychology, CUNY-Brooklyn College, New York, USA, 2015

Dissertation: Perceptual Grouping by Orientation Coherence

Supervisor: dr. Daniel D. Kurylo

B.A., Psychology, Ankara University, Ankara, TR, 2011

Dissertation: Differences Between Voluntary and Involuntary Autobiographical Memories

Supervisor: prof. Nurhan Er

PRESENTATIONS

Talks

Invited Talks

Karabay, A. (2022, August). Taking a snapshot of the brain: Visual impulse reveals (non)persistent neural activity by perturbation and increasing signal-noise ratio. Ghent University in Gent, Belgium.

Conference Talks

Akyürek, E. G., Kandemir, G., Wolff, M., Karabay, A., & Wilhelm, S. (2022, August). Probing latent working memory representations in EEG. Oral session presented at the 22st Conference of the European Society for Cognitive Psychology (ESCoP) in Lille, France.

Chen, I., Buchel, P., Karabay, A., Mathôt, S., & Akyürek, E. G. (2022, August). Concealed familiar face detection with pupillometry in rapid serial visual presentation. Oral session presented at the 22st Conference of the European Society for Cognitive Psychology (ESCoP) in Lille, France.

Wang, S., Karabay, A., & Akyürek, E. G. (2022, August). Which working memory model accounts best for target representation during the attentional blink? Oral session presented at the 22st Conference of the European Society for Cognitive Psychology (ESCoP) in Lille, France.

Karabay, A., Wolff, M. J., Ruuskanen, V., & Akyürek, E. G. (2022, May). A visual impulse reveals memoranda embedded in functional connectivity: Evidence for activity-silent WM states. Oral session presented at the symposium Interactions between sensory representations and cognitive control in working memory at the International Conference of Cognitive Neuroscience 2020 in Helsinki, Finland.

Karabay, A., Wang, J., Wilhelm, S., Martens, S., & Akyürek, E. G. (2019, December). Two faces of the Attentional Blink: Gradual and discrete loss of perceptual awareness. Oral session presented at the 17th NVP Winter Conference in Egmond, Netherlands.

Karabay, A., Wang, J., Martens, S., & Akyürek, E. G. (2019, September). The Attentional Blink: Binary Or Gradual? Oral session presented at the 21st Conference of the European Society for Cognitive Psychology (ESCoP) in Tenerife, Spain.

Kandemir, G., Karabay, A., & Akyürek, E. G. (2019, September). Decoding Sensory and Abstract Information From Activity Silent Brain States. Oral session presented at the 21st Conference of the European Society for Cognitive Psychology (ESCoP) in Tenerife, Spain.

Karabay, A., Saija J., Field, D. T., & Akyürek, E.G. (2017, December). The Acute Effects of Cocoa Flavanols on Temporal and Spatial Attention. Oral session presented at the winter conference 2017 of De Nederlandse Vereniging voor Psychonomie in Egmond, Netherlands.

Er N., Karabay, A., Kaynar, G., Uysal, M. M., & Boyraz, F. U. (2012, May). İstemli & İstemsiz Otobiyografik Anılarda Yaşa Bağlı Değişimler (Variations of Voluntary and Involuntary Autobiographical Memories Depending on Age). Oral Session presented at the 17th National Psychology Congress in Istanbul, Turkey.

Karabay, A., & Çakmak, M.A. (2009, July). Engellenme Karşısında Verilen Tepkiler İle Kişilik Tiplerinin Ve Yükleme Çeşitlerinin İlişkisi (The Relationship between Frustration Responses, Personality Types, and Attribution). Oral session presented at the 14th Ulusal Psikoloji Öğrencileri Kongresi (14th National Conference of Psychology Students) in Istanbul, Turkey.

Posters

SUPERVISED MASTER THESES

- Ruuskanen, V. (2022). Investigating the functionality of visual impulses in decoding working memory using matching and non-matching impulse stimuli. University of Groningen, NL.
- Bapoğlu, O. A. (2021). Pinging individual features of multi-feature objects: an EEG study. University of Groningen, NL.

RELEVANT SKILLS

Technical skills: JASP (advanced); SPSS (advanced); R (advanced); Matlab (moderate/advanced); Python (moderate/advanced); OpenSesame (advanced); E-prime (advanced); MS Office (advanced); Memory modeling; EEG; Multivariate Pattern Analysis; GitHub; Classification; WordPress

Language Skills: Turkish (native); English (professional); Dutch (beginner)

GRANTS & FELLOWSHIPS

- YLSY Scholarship from Ministry of National Education, Turkey (2011-2019). Complete coverage of tuition, stipend, and partial coverage of research costs for masters and Ph.D. degrees (200.000$).

AWARDS

- Open Research award for the study 'Concealed familiar face detection with pupillometry in rapid serial visual presentation', by Open Science Programme, University of Groningen, Groningen, the Netherlands, 2022.
- Best poster presentation award in Searching for the Working Memory Engram workshop with the presentation titled A visual impulse reveals memoranda embedded in functional connectivity: Evidence for activity-silent WM states, Groningen, the Netherlands, 2022.

ORGANIZED WORKSHOP & SEMINARS

- Searching for the Working Memory Engram – University of Groningen, NL, 2022. Organized an international hybrid workshop with prof. Elkan G. Akyürek.

- Introduction to Python/OpenSesame – Leibniz Institute for Psychology, DE, 4-7/08/2020: Worked as a tutor for the workshop by dr. Sebastiaan Mathôt. Topics: Introduction to Python/Numerical Python, Introduction to OpenSesame, Advanced numerical Python, Building online experiment, Collecting data, Analyzing with Python.
- Mindwise Science Communication Workshop – University of Groningen, NL, (I) 04-05/2019; (II) 01/12/2020: “Writing in a conversational style / Academic writing vs. blogging”.

ORGANIZATIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Ph.D. and Postdoc Representative, Department of Experimental Psychology, University of Groningen, NL, 2021-2022.
- Mind-wise Science Communication Ph.D. Committee, University of Groningen, NL, 2018-2021.
- Psychology Ph.D. Council Member, University of Groningen, NL, 2016-2019.

SELECTED CERTIFICATES

- Teaching and Mentoring in Academic Learning Communities, Teaching Unit Psychology of University of Groningen, Groningen, NL, 2018.
- Multivariate pattern analyses (MVPA) in EEG/MEG, Experimenteel-Psychologische Onderzoekschool, Amsterdam, NL, 2018.
- Autumn school: Attention, Experimenteel-Psychologische Onderzoekschool, Amsterdam, NL, 2018.
